PUBLISHED BY

SENIOR CLASS 1951-52
OF DRAPER HIGH SCHOOL

FOREWORD

The staff of the 1951-52 Valley Echo publishes this edition of the Valley Echo with the hope that it will create a lasting memory of the many happy experiences that have occurred during our years at Draper High School.

We sincerely hope that when you are looking back over the dust-covered volumes of your life, you will cherish this book as one of the dearest reminders of your happiest days at Draper High School.

ANNUAL STAFF

DEDICATION

" . . . We hold these truths to be self-evident: that all men are created free and equal and are endowed by their creator with certain inalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. ."

"Free and equal. . . pursuit of happiness." We believe that Americans can claim these honored rights and freedom only if they are unhampered by ignorance and superstition; freedom and happiness are so much a state of mind.

In appreciation and gratitude, therefore, for the many educational privileges and opportunities that are ours, we dedicate this 1951-52 Valley Echo to our school and to those who have made it possible, most especially our parents, who have provided for and encouraged us when we were low in spirits.

IN MEMORIAM

MR. A. F. WESTPHAL

We shall remember him as a man of innumerable capabilities whose sincerity, generosity, kindness, and deep seated interest in the individual won for him the honest love and admiration of each and every student.

He was a living tribute to the finer things of life, had a sense of humor, cheerful outlook on life, and an infinite patience with our many problems.

His spontaneous smile has left a little brighter the hearts of those with whom he has come in contact, and has helped us in hours of need.

It is with pride that we honor Mr. A. F. Westphal, beloved English and History teacher for three years at Draper High School.

CLASS HISTORY

The Senior Class of 1951-52 Presents

"We Live and Learn"

A Pantomime in Four Acts

Act I

Setting: Draper High School

Time: Sept. 1948

Greater Characters: President-Annabelle Webb, John Clark, Vice President-Helen Vires, Curtis Hylton, Secretary-Lois Jackson, Bruce Fariss, Treasurer-Velma Sue Vires, Bruce Fariss, Reporter-Joyce Gunn.

Lesser Characters: Sixty-two teen-age boys and girls.

In this scene we began our career as actors. Our cast consisted of seventy-one members. We had high hopes and plans for the future and from the bottom step of the ladder to success, the road looked long and rocky.

The girls were under the direction of Miss Ann Lovern. The boys were started on their merry way under the guidance of Mr. Ralph Allison.

We soon learned that the most important signs along the road said, "Study".!!!

After a few wrong turns and minor accidents, we finally started our long climb to the top. To reach it successfully was our goal, and we worked to get there without having to detour.

Remembered Events:

Our class had a Hallowe'en Party in the Gym. We played games and had refreshments. Looking back we remember this as the happiest occasion in our year as green freshmen.

Act II

Setting: Draper High School

Time: Sept. 1949

Greater Characters: President-Ruby Quesenberry, Vice President-Bruce Fariss, Secretary-Louise Dalton, Treasurer-Helen Vires, Reporter-Bruce Fariss.

Lesser Characters: Fifty advancing actors.

After fifty-four of us had survived the first year of our climb, we found ourselves located on the second rung of the ladder and another long journey unfolded before our startled eyes.

We felt a little better now that we had someone below us, but we still weren't high enough. So we stuck our noses in the books and started again. We only climbed out of the stack long enough to read the signs and be sure not to miss the next curve.

Some of our cast had been lost in the struggle to reach the second step, but most of us were still trying out for new parts and learning new lines.

We are thankful for the help of Mr. Allison and Miss Lovern. Without their guidance some of us would never have reached the next step.

Remembered Events:

This year we gave a weiner roast back of the school house. We had plenty to eat and lots of fun. Later we played games and danced in the Gym.

Act III

Setting: Draper High School

Time: Sept. 1950

Greater Characters: President-Helen Vires, Vice President-Louise Dalton, Secretary-Bruce Fariss, Treasurer-Louise Akers, Reporter-Alice Vires.

Lesser Characters: Thirty-one carefree actors.

Juniors!!! This was a small word but it held a lot of meaning for the thirty-six tired but jolly actors that had successfully advanced to the step below the top.

We remember this as the year filled with laughter. Juniors were supposed to be jolly and we lived up to the name. Everyday had something new to laugh about.

We considered ourselves experienced actors and demanded more privileges. We became more dignified now that we were upperclassmen.

Mr. Lyons was our director for this step. With his help most of us were able to keep up the pace we had set for ourselves when we began.

Remembered Events:

Our jolliest year is remembered for our junior play entitled "The Daffy Dills", our trip to Lakeside and the entertaining of the Seniors.

CLASS HISTORY

Act IV

Setting: Draper High School

Time: Sept. 1951

Greater Characters: President-Louise Dalton, Vice-President-Frank McGrady, Secretary-Treasurer-Ruby Quesenberry, Reporter-Joyce Gunn.

Lesser Characters: Twenty-four experienced actors.

Now we've reached the horizon we saw before us that long ago year of 1948-the horizon outlined by sunshine and opportunity.

Our next step is to begin our careers: some to college, some to work and others to do the many things that are before us, now that we've found the key to open the door, the door to our future.

The twenty-eight happy, but still working itinerant actors can see the reward they will receive when the month of June 1952 comes around.

We are grateful to Miss Poole for helping us once weary, but now happy, seniors to bring to a successful climax our four delightful and struggling years at Draper High School. As we leave dear old Draper, we will take fond and happy memories with us, but the most important things, the things we've learned here, will be the keys to our future.

Remembered Events:

The biggest year of all is here and as usual the schedule is filled with fun as well as work.

Now comes the Junior and Senior entertainment, Baccalaureate Sermon, Class Night, Graduation, and last of all our golden key to the locked door---the diploma.

CLASS PROPHECY

Ten years ago the class of 1951-52 graduated from Draper High School. This year, in the year 1962, Draper is holding an Old Home Week. Fortunately, we find that all of the class are ambitiously climbing the ladder of success and are well on their way to distribute and to share their glorious and extraordinary talents with all humanity. As we enter into a discussion we attain much news and the latest gossip of the "Talented Twenty-eight." I, Colleen Martin, chairman of the Snooping Snoopers Society, will attempt to give you the latest news of these graduates of 1951-52.

Joyce Gunn has been awarded honors for her courageous work as a Red Cross nurse and has recently been transferred to a Veterans Hospital at Roanoke where she is nursing quite a few handsome men. Bobby Tickle has been awarded the Pulitzer Prize for writing a book, "How To Argue Your Way Through." Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Hylton have recently announced the arrival of triplet boys--Dugg, Mugg, and Jhugg. Mrs. Hylton is the former Miss Helen Vires. Yvonne Alexander has been promoted to captain in the Wac's. Admiral John Clark, U.S.N., recently awarded medals to Seamen Delmas Trail and Carl Quesenberry for being the best deck scrubbers in the U.S. Navy. Eleanor Parker, the famous movie star, is now starring in the movie, "Love Affair," with C.R. Smith as "the boogie man." Bruce Fariss, a psychiatrist, has just returned from Asia and is working on a formula which will make students in the future more intelligent. We understand he has also been treating the former Annabelle Webb, a housewife living in Honolulu, who has eight kids, four boys and four girls. Joanne O'Dell was graduated last week from the "Lady Lake's Ladylike Leisure Academy." Carol Huff and Mary Bowden are featured dancers at a new hot-spot called "Mooner's Midnight Mushroom," owned and operated by a fellow alumni. Maggie Lawson, owner of the Lawson's Magnificent Riding School, has just bought a new horse, "Sore Foot." Peggy Windle, president of the "Lonely Hearts Club," suffered from a nervous breakdown and is recuperating at Draper's Valley Hospital. Snowdeer Jamison is married and living happily with her husband and five children, while Earline Watson, living right next door, is also married and has six children. Their ambitions are to work at the "Expensive Explosive Ordnance Works." Lucy Miller, dean at Radford College, recently talked to the students of Shiloh High School on "Why An Education Is More Important Than Marriage." Louise Akers, now married to a successful dentist, is traveling around the country in a trailer so that all people may have dental care. Emma Jo Rigney is managing the "Daffy Do-Nut Shoppe" which is located on 1500 Washington Avenue in Delton. Alice Vires, with the assistance of Ruby Quesenberry, has opened a charm school--"Clamour For Glamour Shoppe." Lois Jackson, a great Metropolitan Opera Singer and famous movie actress, is making a tour to Draper and nearby vicinities with her accompanist, Louise Dalton. Lois recently starred in the movie, "Two-Timing Tootsie," while Louise had the leading role in "I Love Them All." During a previous visit in Draper I was attracted by the following advertisement: "Why go around half dead? Frank McGrady's Funeral Home will bury you for $32.48!"

Who'd a thought ten years ago that we'd a come to 'dis ?

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

- I, Lois Jackson, will my giggles to anyone who will have them.
- I, Louise Dalton, will my ability to ask dumb questions to Betty Huddleston.
- I, Peggy Windle, will my ability to be a telephone operator to anyone who desires it.
- I, Joyce Gunn, will my place as captain of the basketball team to Norma O'Dell.
- I, Eleanor Parker, will a book, "How to Get Along With The Boss", to Margaret Rigney.
- I, Carol Huff, will my scattered brain to Joyce Harler.
- I, Colleen Martin, will a book of jokes to Miss Umberger so she can laugh and grow fat.
- I, Annabelle Webb, will part of my hair to Annie Jarrells.
- I, Ruby Quesenberry, will my place as treasurer of the Senior Class to any one with fingers enough to add.
- I, Helen Vires, will my place on first team of basketball to Betty Gleason.
- I, Jo Ann O'Dell, will my ability to get along with Miss Patton to Wayne Edwards.
- I, Alice Vires, will my place as captain of the cheer-leaders to Shirley Hodge.
- I, Earline Watson, will my life of ease, where everything goes just right, to Donald Kidd.
- I, Louise Akers, will my place as secretary of the Beta Club to Claudine Buckner.
- I, Emma Jo Rigney, will my place as co-captain of the basketball team to Hetty Lou Rigney.
- I, Lucy Miller, will my job as editor of the annual to Shirley Hodge.
- I, Maggie Lawson, will my shortness to Bessie Howell.
- I, Mary Bowden, will my foreign accent to Isabelle Marshall.
- I, Yvonne Alexander, will my ability to get along in Government class to Homer Moore.
- I, Snowdeer Jamison, will my quietness to Gene Hubbard.
- I, Delmas Trail, will my ability to accidentally fall asleep in Geography to anyone who thinks he can get by with it.
- I, John Clark, will my place as co-captain of the basketball team to Royce Akers.
- I, C. R. Smith, will my ability to "play dumb" to Jerry Coltrane.
- I, Bruce Fariss, will my back seat on the school bus to anyone who thinks he can get it while I am there.
- I, Douglas Hylton, will my place as captain of the basketball team to William Duncan.
- I, Bobby Tickle, will my ability to argue and to convince to the Supreme Court of the U.S.
- I, Frank McGrady, will my reducing pills to Dawn Cox.
- I, Carl Quesenberry, will my brown eyes to Cecil Covey.

We, the Senior Class, will to our teachers the following:

- To Miss Poole, a group that will appreciate her guidance as much as we have.
- To Miss Umberger, a "Mickey Mouse" watch so she can give speed tests in typing.
- To Mr. Allison, a Basketball team who can win half of all the games.
- To Miss Edmondson, a successful basketball team.
- To Miss Patton, a government class that knows its American History.
- To Miss McGavock, a dependable biology class.
- To Mr. Godfrey, a Girls Glee Club that can get an "A" rating at the District Festival.
- To Mr. Lyons, a co-operative Junior Varsity basketball team.
- To Mr. Tilson, an intelligent F.F.A. group.
- To Mrs. Honaker, a co-operative general business class.
- To Mr. Newman, a "stop sign" for the Hot Rod Racers at 3:28 P.M.

We the Senior Class will to the Junior Class, strength to reach the goal just ahead.

We the Senior Class will to the Sophomore Class, the joy of becoming jolly Juniors next year.

We the Senior Class will to the Freshman Class, the perseverance required to become Dignified Seniors.

Hereunto, we declare this to be the last will and testament of the Class of 1951-52, on this first day of November, nineteen hundred and fifty-one.
